Beloved in Christ,

Some of us older people will remember reading an advice column written by Ann Landers (1918-2002), which was printed in 1200 newspapers and read by over 90 million people daily. This young lady, born of Russian Jewish parents in Iowa, acquired over 30 honorary University degrees and the respect and love (and sometimes anger) of millions of faithful readers. In my files, I came across an Advice Column that I had saved for many years and decided to share this with you, as an example of her wit and wisdom.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

How to raise a crook

- I. Begin from infancy to give the child everything he wants. This way he will grow up to believe that the world owes him a living.
- II. When he picks up bad words, laugh at him. It will encourage him to pick up cuter phrases that will blow the top of your head later.
- III. Never give him any spiritual training. Wait until he is 21 & then let him decide for himself.
- IV. Avoid the use of the word "wrong". It may develop a guilt complex. This will condition him to believe later, when he is arrested for stealing a car, that society is against him and he is being persecuted.
- V. Pick up anything he leaves lying around – books, shoes, clothing. Do everything for him so he will be experienced in throwing the responsibility onto others.
- VI. Let him read any printed matter he can get his hands on. Silverware and drinking glasses are sterilized, but let his mind feed on garbage.
- VII. Quarrel frequently in the presence of children. Then they won't be too shocked when the home is broken up.
- VIII. Give the child all the spending money he wants. Never let him earn his own. Why should he have things as rough as you had them?
- IX. Satisfy his every craving for food, drink and comfort. See that every desire is gratified. Denial may lead to harmful frustrations.
- X. Take his part against the neighbours, teachers and policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.
- XI. When he gets into real trouble, apologize for yourselves by saying: "I never could do anything with him."
- XII. Prepare for a life of grief because you are sure to have it!

*****

On another note, PLEASE make Remembrance Day as a time "to remember and pray for all who have sacrificed their lives in defense of peace and freedom." How wonderful it would be if you, as a family, came to pray in church during the 9:00 am Memorial Liturgy! The K of C will also be remembering their +Brother Knights and then hosting coffee for everyone after the services.
