Dear Beloved Parishioners and Guests,

Happily our various organizational meetings commence this coming week— be it the UCWLC, the Knights of Columbus, the Parish Council, the Golden Agers, the Catechism Coordinator, etc. Fr. Ray and I are most pleased with the positive energy and the generous spirit that each parish organization projects. Needless to say, we are very proud of you all and sincerely are very happy to be “part & parcel” of your lives.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

These past Sundays were indeed, “sad” and “happy” days. Sad because it seemed that summer is almost over, but happy because so many of you were back home praying with us at St. Mary's. It felt wonderful celebrating the Divine Liturgy with all your voices singing and praising our good Lord Jesus! Truly we need to pray for all the victims of Hurricane Harvey and for all those also suffering because of the many forest fires.

How blessed we are in Yorkton to be served by a professional and excellent Catholic School System – Christ the Teacher – with St. Mary's, St. Alphonsus, St. Paul, St. Michael and Sacred Heart high school all providing an effective Catholic education for our little ones and our teenagers! For this we must all give thanks!

We, however, also provide a special Catechism program for the children of the parish who are preparing for their First Solemn Holy Communion. Again, we are blessed to have wonderful volunteers to conduct this program. We thank in advance all the parents who will register their beloved children in this important phase of their “faith journey”. Grandparents – remind your sons and daughters that you truly want your grandchild in this religious program. We will not rest easy until all the parish children are actively receiving a solid Christian formation and education.

Dear Parents, we truly wish to assist you as you realize this great responsibility you have accepted! Besides the bi-monthly class for the children, we also have a monthly class for all you parents...

And yes, we are planning an Adult Religious Program – on Sunday 10:00 am. I truly believe this will be a most special “gift” to all of us adults – a chance to deepen and enliven our Christian faith in a most interesting and challenging way! Keep posted!

The monthly Adult Lay Formation program commences again on Fri/Sat. Sept. 22/23rd and continues for the rest of the year. Everyone participating is very pleased...

Just a friendly reminder - we work extra hard on our parish bulletin, providing as much “info” of Parish and Community events as possible. There is no way you can memorize it during the Liturgy. Please take the bulletin home. We will be personally hurt if you just discard it! So do make us all happy!

If at times, you do not see one of us priests on Sunday, that means we are gladly celebrating Liturgy in one of our 10 country parishes and getting to know them also!

God bless you all! And do have a wonderful harvesting week. Quote of the week: “I thought getting old would take longer!”
