Beloved Sisters and Brothers of St. Mary's,

I wonder how many of us silently and secretly rejoice that we are not “like them”!!! “Like them” come in all sorts of sizes, colours, shapes, economic conditions, health situations and thousand of other things. By not being “like them”, we feel superior. By not being “like them”, we feel safe and secure. We feel good about ourselves! BUT are we fair? Are we even Christians?

We all do it! Whether we want to admit it or not, we are all, sooner or later, prejudiced in our lives. We feel that our religion, our skin colour, our nationality, our social status makes us better. We begin to believe that we deserve what we have and we also have hundreds of reasons to justify our position and our stance. BUT are we fair, are we right, are we even Christians?

This may sound a little harsh, but is it not true! Our “comfort zone” often damages our perspective and sadly distorts our thinking. It stops us from being understanding and generous and kind. It locks us in a cage of smugness and complacency - for we are not “like them”!

You and I must remember that God created each and every one of us and that we are all His beloved children. He does not judge us as Ukrainians, or Canadians, or Aborigines... He does not see us as white or black or yellow. He does not see us as skinny or fat, as rich or poor. God the Father sees us as His children and judges us on our fairness toward one another. He judges us on how much we love one another and how much we are willing to sacrifice for one another.

If we generously allowed God's spirit to live within us, we would then live our lives in constant search for inner peace and serenity. We would always be in search for harmony – harmony between us and God, harmony within ourselves and harmony toward others. How easy it is to surround ourselves with people who think like we do and then to live in peace with them. But is not true harmony much more than this? Should we not try to imagine getting into someone else's skin and develop our awareness, our fairness our tolerance and our appreciation? If we allow God to dwell within us, we will truly be drawn toward peace in every aspect of our lives.

May we all learn to be fair so that we, as God's children in this world, may be generous and kind not only to those in our little circle, but to each and everyone...

Next weekend Thanksgiving is very special – a time for us to stop and sincerely make it a “giving thanks” time in our lives...

100TH ANNIVERSARY FATIMA PRAYER VIGIL

OCTOBER 13TH

On October 13th, 1917, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared in Fatima, Portugal for the sixth and final time to confirm the influence she has with the Triune God. The "Miracle of the Sun" on that day converted 100's and possibly, 1000's of unbelieving souls and she continues to perform wonderful miracles on behalf of her Son.

Mary's love for all of us continues perpetually. As a loving Mother of Mankind, she waits for our prayers and petitions with a maternal desire to heal our pains and to win souls for Her Son Jesus.

Please come to pray especially on Friday, October 13th here in our beautiful church dedicated to the Mother of Perpetual Help. We commence with a Divine Liturgy at 9:00 am and you are encouraged to come and pray as long as you are able for the world and for each other.
